

Would you like to influence and strengthen your community?

Would you like to help people find the connections they need to improve their lives?

We're recruiting:

Senior Research & Intelligence Worker

Salary: PCP Band 6, £22,701 per annum

Located: Home working with potential outreach across County Durham

37 hours per week (full time)

Fixed Term: 30 June 2022

Is this you?

Are you looking to utilise your skills and experience in using a range of research methods across multiple stakeholders to evidence and initiate change? Are you highly motivated and caring? Do you want to be a part of our incredible team and make a difference?

Yes

As well as delivering great services, PCP are passionate about bringing the voices of the community we support to the forefront of our work. Leading an existing team, the perfect candidate will effectively plan and deliver a programme of research across PCP including overseeing mental health, befriending and peer support research.
