Macmillan
Joining the Dots
County Durham

Is this you?

Would you like to make a positive difference to the lives of people affected by cancer? Helping them to find the connections and support to improve their lives?

Yes?

Joining the Dots County Durham provides personal service for people aged 18 and over who have been diagnosed with cancer. We're also there for friends, carers and relatives of any age too. The post holder will engage and support a caseload of clients, affected by a diagnosis of cancer, supporting them to access services and support to ensure the best possible quality of life.

If you have some experience of cancer, either working or lived experience, then you could be the ideal candidate for this role. This challenging but rewarding role, requires someone with strong personal resilience. But fear not the team has a good support network in place.

Closing Date: Midnight Wednesday 5th January 2022
